

In the footsteps of William the Conqueror, you will be entranced by the medieval village of St Guilhem le Désert. Its atmosphere and charm will take you back in time...

ST GUILHEM

- Meet a local sweets producer
- Photos stop : the legendary Pont du Diable over the gorges of Herault river
- Medieval village of St Guilhem le Désert, on the pilgrim route to Santiago da Compostella
- On the way back, 1 hour free time in Pézenas

LA CAMARGUE

This medieval walled city of St Louis stands among marshland, pink flamingos and of course the famous black bulls and white horses of the Camargue. A page right out of a history book accompanied by gorgeous landscapes.

- A drive through the marshes for a view of the pink flamingos
- Saintes Maries de la Mer
- Photos stop : the salt heaps at the Salins du Midi factory
- Aigues Mortes, the medieval walled city

Go back in time to Cathar Country and discover the legendary medieval city of Carcassonne. This walled city, on the list of Unesco's World Heritage Sites, will enchant you on this day tour back to the time of knights and feudal lords.

CARCASSONNE

- A visit to an olive-oil producer with tasting
- The fortified city of Carcassonne (lunch by your own & free time)
- On the way back, a stop at the 9 locks of Fonserrannes on the Canal du Midi

